Our Sabbath school is in a flourishing condition. It will, until further notice, meet in the Court-room, every Sunday, at 12 o'clock, M.

Masters John Bourke and John Stevens know how to utilize homeless donkeys, in these sleighing times. They hitch them to the sleighs and make 'em git, you bet.

A Spanish sheep which J. H. Lee, of American Valley, killed, a few days ago, weighed when dressed, Just fifty-seven pounds.

B. C. Foster returned recently from a surveyiag expedition. We learn that he lined a township east of the Agua Fria, which township takes in C. P. Head & Co.'s stock range.

A few days ago, as J. H. Behan and Jack Leonard were flying over the snow, their sleigh separated and so did they, for a short space of time. Behan, who is a second Budd Doble, doubled on the fiver and prevented bim from cutting up any nonsensical pranks.

The County is now about $14,000 in debt, but it has good property, in the shape of offices, to show for it, and will shortly unload this little load of debt, as the present Board of Supervisors are bent on economy.

Jim Bones' passenger coach left Prescott, Saturday last, for Los Angeles, California. Among the passengers were Ed. W. Weils and E. H. Me-Daniel. Mr. Wells, although a young man, is one of Arizona's oldest, best and most popular citizens. He goes to San Francisco and Colorado and expects to be back in Prescott in a couple of months. We recommend him to readers of the MINER, everywhere, as one of God's noblemen. Major McDaniel is so well known outside of the Territory, as a gallant gentleman, any recommendation of him, from us, would be superfluous. He, too, expects to be

Jim Bones' passenger coach will be back in Prescott during the latter part of this month, and will start back for California on or about the second of February next.

We'll wager a small sum that T. J. Butler, an old editor, who is now here rusticating, can do better jobs of whittling than any man between Los Angeles and Santa Fe. Specimens of his work,-such as human hands, clasping hearts, scissors, tongs, etc., etc.,-are the smoothest and best work we have ever seenproduced, by man, out of wood, with naught save a pocket-knife.

COUNTY OFFICERS, OLD AND NEW .- Ed. F. Bowers, sheriff, and F. D. Parker, under sheriff, have taken the places of H. M. Herbert, late sheriff, and Wm. Wilkerson, late under sheriff. Mr. Herbert and his old under sheriff, Mr. Wilkerson won good reputations for honor, honesty, sobriety, courteousness and other good qualities while in the sheriff's office. Their successors stand well in this county, and ought to make good officers. Mr. Wm. Wilkerson is now Recorder, in place of Ed. W. Wells, who was twice elected to the office and attended to its duties in a way that gave general satisfaction, for four years.

county. We were urst elected to the office in 1865, and this is our third term, a fact which causes us to feel deeply grateful to our fellow citizens of glorious old Yavapai County, who have never yet failed to put their trust in us, which trust, thank God, has never been violated

A. O. Noyes and T. S. Ruff have retired from the Board of Supervisors and are succeeded by Gideon Cornell and B. H. Weaver, Dr. Geo, D. Kendall holds over. We can, as an editor and a man, boldly assert that all of the foregoing Supervisors are good men.

The Odd Fellows Ball on New Year's Eve was a brilliant success. The "many twinkling feet" of the ladies and gentlemen tripped the light fantastic to the beautiful music of Silsbee's band. All seemed enjoying themselves and possessors of that American paradise, "a good time." The twenty-seven ladies that adorned the ball made an array of beauty and vivacity that could not be surpassed. The forty-six gentlemen seemed to be all bent on making the occasion as pleasurable as possible, -- and this endeavor on their part was made easy of execution by the able supervision of the whole by Messrs Noyes and Jewell, the gentlemanly floor managers.

And then the supper! We are not much of a dancist, but when we talk about suppers we know whereof we speak. Supper is our best hold, and we struck elysium when we "went for" that supper that Dan Hatz prepared for us. Altogether, those who attended this ball found as pleasurable a mode of seeing the old year out and the New Year in, as could be desired.

N. P. Pierce and C. C. Wilson arrived here recently from the Greenwood mine and talk of starting back to-morrow. Mr Pierce informs us that his object in coming to Prescott at this time was to find a good route for a wagon road. This he has done. His route follows the north side of the Santa Maria river. Distance from the Greenwood to Prescott, about 65 miles. Route well supplied with wood, water and grass, The capitalists who have invested in the Greenwood and other mines have 100 Indians at work, in Arizona, waking a road to the Colorado, and 25 Chinamen, in California, making a road from San Bernardino, to connect with the Arizona road. When completed, this road will be almost 100 miles shorter than any other road between Prescott and San Bernardino, and may become our principal mail route.

Some beautiful blonde has lost ber hair! It was brought to this office by a gentleman who, being a bachelor, is of course unintiated. In his face was written the most intense horror, as he told us that he found the hair on top of the snow, and feared that some young and fair creature had met with an untimely death. He innocently be lieved that the young lady might be under the snow. As he was telling his story we smiled, so to speak, the smile of the knowing one. We are not a bachelor, and, consequently, "know how it is ourself." We request the bereaved blonde to send at once for her back and top hair, as it is demoralizing the bachelor young employes of this office. It is a beautiful head of hair; weight, probably, two pounds, avoirdupois. A beautiful turn out, with the usual adjuncts of hair pins and stuffing. Whose is it?

Ed. W. Wells, district attorney, has appointed his predecessor, H. H. Carater, to act for him during his absence from the Territory.

The Gift Enterprise drawing is postponed to February 13th.

[From Tuesday's Daily.] The meeting of the Board of Supervisors yes terday was attended by all the members of the new board. The board made their annual settlement with the treasurer, and allowed several bills. R. S. Thomas, route agent, arrived here from Phenix and Wickenburg yesterday. He reports the roads as being considerably washed by recent rains between Wickenburg and Prescott, necessitating four horses on that part of the route. He suggested that the citizens of Peeples Valley and other localities on the route ought to assist in improving the condition of the roads. The man who was seen rushing frantically round town this morning was not going for a physician, as was reported. He was merely hunt-ing up somebody who had for sale tickets in Messrs Fisher and Thorne's Grand Gift Enterprise, fearing that he might otherwise be too late and lose the rare chance for gifts it affords. Drawing to take place on February 13th.

Mr Ferris came in on Saturday last with the mail on the new route from Wickenburg via Walnut Grove, Bradshaw, Bully Bueno quartz mill, Hassayampa and the Quartz Mountain mills to Prescott. This is a weekly mail leaving Prescott on Sunday mornings and leaving Wickenburg Thursdays. He informs us that the farmers of Wickenburg and vicinity are opening their lands preparatory for the planting of new crops.

The quarterly meeting of the Prescott Jockey Club was held last evening. The following gen-tlemen were elected a finance committee for the ensuing year: H. A. Bigelow, president; W. J. Ross, first vice-president; D. C. Thorne, second vice-president; J. Marks, treasurer; Wm. Miner, secretary; W. J. Tompkins; C. A. Luke (all reelected), and John Raible.

The contracts for work on the race track have been let and the only impediment to its comple-tion is about twelve inches of snow upon the ground. Races will, without a doubt, take place in the spring over the society's track.

THE GALAXY, for January, came to us bristling, as usual, with good things. This magazine, now entering on its tenth year, has established and, we doubt not, will sustain a high reputation, numbering among its contributors, as it does, some of the ablest minds of the country.
